

Bequest Form

I want to support Building for the Future

Your legacy and the legacies of all those who support The Matthew Smith Almshouse Charity are vital, ensuring that people have an affordable home in later life. That is why we would be so grateful if you would remember the Almshouses Charity in your Will and let us know you are doing so by completing and returning this form. There is of course no obligation for you to complete this form, nor is it in anyway a legally binding document. However, by letting us know your intentions, you will help us plan our work with greater confidence.
